

Book of the Profane Word

Wondrous Item, Artifact (Requires Attunement)

True evil is a festering thing. It lies dormant in every person's heart, its whisper a vile temptation towards a dark power. That whisper is the Profane Word. And bound within the pages of this twisted manuscript, that promised power is yours for the taking.

Unholy Being. When you become attuned to The Book of the Profane Word, you take 8d10 psychic damage. Additionally, you gain the following properties while you are attuned to it:

- You have resistance to necrotic damage
- Your AC increases by 1
- When you hit a creature with a weapon attack the target takes an extra 1d6 necrotic damage
- You can't smell
- All holy water within 10 feet of you is destroyed
- Your weight drops by 1d4 x 5 pounds
- You have disadvantage on attack rolls, ability checks, and saving throws while more than 30 feet from the Book of the Profane word

If you prefer, you can replace this feature with 1 minor beneficial property, 2 major beneficial properties, 3 minor detrimental properties, and 2 major detrimental properties.

Attuning to the Book. An evil-aligned spellcaster can attune to the Book of the Profane Word by spending 80 hours reading and studying its contents. Once attuned, you must choose one of your ability scores to increase by 2, to a maximum of 24, and another to decrease by 2, to a minimum of 3. You can't gain this effect from the book more than once, but it persists even if you are no longer attuned to the book.

Dark Whispers. While attuned to the book, you can spend 1 hour studying its pages to attempt to memorize one of the Spells of the Profane Word. At the end of the hour, make an Intelligence (Arcana) check with a DC equals 10 + twice the spell's level, then gain a level of exhaustion. On a success, you memorize the spell.

You can have a total number of memorized spell levels equal to your character level. For example, if you're level 9, you could memorize one 5th-level spell and one 4th-level spell, or three 3rd-level spells.

While a Spell of the Profane Word is memorized, you can cast it using any spell slot of an appropriate level that you possess. If you are a wizard, you may copy a spell you have memorized into your spellbook. Once copied, you can prepare it as you would any other spell. If you do, it does not count against your limit of memorized spells.

If you stop being attuned to the book of the Profane Word, you lose any spells you have memorized.

It will not take a route that will result in it taking damage, even if no other route is available. If it starts its turn within 5 feet of you, it must use its action to hand you a single object it is holding. If it is holding more than one object, you choose which it gives you. Once it has done so, it cannot move until the spell ends, unless you compel it to hand you a second object it is holding. The spell ends early if you or your companions deal damage to the target.

Song of Festering Death

Level 2 Evocation

Casting Time: Action

Range: 90 ft

Components: V

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute

You sing a wailing ululation toward a creature you can see within range. The target makes a Wisdom saving throw. On a failed save, it takes 2d8 poison damage and gains the poisoned condition for the duration of this spell as its flesh bubbles and festers into pestilent blobs. On a successful save, the target takes half as much damage and the spell ends.

If the target dies while poisoned in this way, it bursts with a sickening pop, forcing every creature within 15 feet of it to make a Dexterity saving throw or take 2d8 acid damage. A creature that succeeds takes half as much damage. If a creature you can see within 90 feet of you fails this saving throw, you may take a reaction to force it to make a Wisdom save as if you had just chosen it as the target of this spell. This does not reset the spell's duration.

Using a Higher-Level Spell Slot. The poison and acid damage both increase by 1d8 for each spell slot level above 2.

Clutch of Death

Level 2 Necromancy

Casting Time: Action

Range: 100 ft

Components: V, S

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute

You conjure forth a phantasmal claw to seize a creature's heart. Make a ranged spell attack against one creature in range that has a heart. On each of your subsequent turns, you can take a magic action to repeat this attack against the same target.

If this spell reduces a creature to 0 hit points, its chest ruptures and bursts, and its smoking heart appears in your hand.

Using a Higher-Level Spell Slot. The damage increases by 2d4 for each spell slot level above 2.

Drown

Level 3 Conjuration

Veil of Shadows

Level 3 Conjuraton

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute

You create a miniscule breach between this world and the Shadowfell and tether it to a creature you can see within range. Make a ranged spell attack against the target. On a hit, it takes 2d6 necrotic damage, and its Strength score is reduced by 1d4 until the spell ends. On each of your subsequent turns, you can take a magic action to repeat this attack against the same target.

The target dies if this spell reduces its Strength to 0. If a humanoid is slain by this spell, a Shadow immediately rises from the corpse.

This spell has no effect if cast in the Shadowfell.

Using a Higher-Level Spell Slot. The damage increases by 1d6 for each spell slot level above 3.

Wave of Necrosis

Level 3 Necromancy

Casting Time: Action

Range: 120 ft. / 20 ft. radius

Using a Higher-Level Spell Slot. The damage increases by 1d8 for each spell slot level above 3.

Wrack

Range: 60 ft.

Components: V, S

Duration: 1 round

You extend your hand towards a creature with blood in its veins that you can see within range. The target must succeed on a Constitution saving throw or take 3d10 necrotic damage and fall prone. Until the end of your next turn, the creature is incapacitated and blinded as its eyes, face, and hands begin to blister and clot with blood.

Additionally, when the spell ends, the target must succeed on another Constitution saving throw or be poisoned until it takes a long rest.

Using a Higher-Level Spell Slot. The damage increases by 1d10 for each spell slot level above 3.

Call Nightmare

Level 4 Conjuraton

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 30 ft.

Components: V, S, M (a piece of charcoal)

Duration: Instantaneous

You call forth a Nightmare in an unoccupied space that you can see within range. The Nightmare is under no compulsion to behave in any particular way. You can ask the Nightmare to aid you in one way or another, but it isn't obliged to do so.

The requested task could range from simple (fly us across the chasm, or help us fight a battle) to complex (spy on our enemies, or protect us during our foray into the dungeon). If the task is aligned with the Nightmare's ethos, it might help you, but a task that seems suicidal will likely be eschewed.

Bonding with the Nightmare. If you bestow upon the Nightmare a soul that is in your possession, it becomes your bonded mount until you die.

While it is your bonded mount, the Nightmare is an ally to you and your allies. In combat, it shares your Initiative count, and it functions as a controlled mount while you ride it (as defined in the rules on mounted combat). If you have the Incapacitated condition, the Nightmare takes its turn immediately after yours and acts independently, focusing on protecting you. While the Nightmare is within 1 mile of you, you can communicate with it telepathically.

The Nightmare disappears temporarily when it drops to 0 hit points or when you dismiss it as an action. Casting this spell again re-summons the Nightmare, with all its hit points restored and any conditions removed. As an action, you can release the Nightmare from its bond, causing it to disappear permanently.

Whenever the mount disappears, it leaves behind any objects it was wearing or carrying.

Circle of Nausea

Level 4 Evocation

Casting Time: 1 hour

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (rare chalks and inks infused with powdered lead worth 50 gp, which the spell consumes)

Duration: Until dispelled

As part of the casting time, you draw a 5-foot-diameter circle on the ground inscribed with dark sigils and written incantations. Once completed, the sigils flare a sickly green, then turn invisible. When a creature enters the circle, it must succeed on a Constitution saving throw or become poisoned until it leaves the circle. While poisoned in this way, the creature's speed becomes 0.

As part of casting the spell, you can choose a passphrase. When spoken within 5 feet of the circle, the passphrase suppresses the spell's effect for 1 minute.

Cruel Disappointment

Level 4 Illusion

Casting Time: Action

Range: 150 ft

Components: V, S

Duration: 1 round

You implant a jinx within the mind of a creature you can see within range. The next time the target succeeds on an attack roll, ability check or saving throw before the start of your next turn, the target must reroll the d20 and use the lower roll.

If this causes the triggering roll to fail, you create a phantasmal vision of events perceivable only to the target, that leads it to believe it succeeded instead. The phantasm includes sound, temperature, and other stimuli.

While a target is affected by the spell, the target treats the phantasm as if it were real. The target rationalizes any illogical outcomes from interacting with the phantasm. At the end of the target's next turn, the phantasm fades and the creature realizes that it was fooled.

Dark Transformation

Level 4 Transmutation

Casting Time: Action

Range: Self

Components: V, S, M (a fresh or preserved severed limb, which the spell consumes)

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 minutes.

You assume a dark form. When you cast the spell, choose one of the following options, the effects of which last for the duration of the spell. While the spell lasts, you take an action to exchange your chosen benefit for a different option from the list:

Corrosive Claws. Your hands turn into large razor-edged claws. For the duration of the spell, when you take the attack action on your turn, you can make two unarmed strikes with the claws. You may use your spellcasting modifier instead of your Strength modifier for the attack and damage roll, and they deal 1d8 piercing damage in place of the regular damage of your unarmed strikes.

In addition, nonmagical armor worn by a creature you hit takes a –1 penalty to the AC it offers. The armor is destroyed if the penalty reduces its AC to 10. The penalty can be removed by casting the Mending spell on the armor.

Fangs of the Vampire King. You grow vampire-like fangs. For the duration of the spell, when you take the attack action on your turn, you can make an unarmed strike with the fangs. You may use your spellcasting modifier instead of your Strength modifier for the attack and damage roll, and they deal 3d6 necrotic damage in place of the regular damage of your unarmed strikes.

The target's hit point maximum is reduced by an amount equal to the necrotic damage taken, and you regain hit points equal to that amount. The reduction lasts until the target finishes a long rest.

Writhing Serpents. Your arms turn into writhing serpents. For the duration of the spell, when you take the attack action on your turn, you can make two unarmed strikes with the serpents. You may use your spellcasting modifier instead of your Strength modifier for the attack and damage roll, and they deal 2d6 piercing damage in place of the regular damage of your unarmed strikes.

If a target is hit with both attacks on the same turn, you may choose to grapple it. While a creature is grappled by you in this way, it is also restrained.

Distort Summons

Level 4 Conjuration

Casting Time: Reaction, which you take when you see a creature within 60 feet of you summon another creature.

Range: 120 ft.

Components: V, S

Duration: Instantaneous

You attempt to interrupt a creature in the process of summoning another creature. The summoner must succeed on a Charisma saving throw or the summoned creature will be distorted. A distorted summon is changed in the following ways:

- It becomes a fiend, if it wasn't one already. If any of its attacks or abilities dealt radiant damage before, they instead deal necrotic damage.
- It is hostile to the summoner and does not heed any commands, nor can the summoner dismiss it even if the original spell would permit them to.
- It only disappears when killed, or after the summoner has been killed.

Identify Transgressor

Level 4 Divination

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Self

Components: V

Duration: Instantaneous

You beseech entities of unending knowledge from beyond our world to reveal the name of a transgressor. You may ask a question that can be answered with a single person's name, such as: "Who broke into the temple last night?" or "Who killed my mentor?"

When the question is asked, the transgressor must make a Wisdom saving throw, no matter where they are. If their name is known to you already, the save is made with disadvantage. If it fails the save, you hear their name spoken in your mind.

Psychic Poison

Level 4 Abjuration

Casting Time: Action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (A bit of fresh or preserved humanoid brain tissue)

Duration: 8 hours

You touch a willing creature, shaping purple sigils that circle their head for a moment before vanishing. For the duration, if that creature becomes the target of a divination spell, the caster of that spell must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw. On a failure, the divination spell fails, the caster takes 4d10 psychic damage and is poisoned for 1 minute.

Using a Higher-Level Spell Slot. You can target one additional creature for each spell slot level above 4.

Touch of the Ooze Lord

Level 4 Transmutation

Casting Time: Action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (a vial of acid containing a dissolved bone)

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute

You touch a creature, cursing it to become an amorphous ooze. The target makes a Wisdom saving throw. On a failed save, it is poisoned as it slowly begins to turn to a colorless ooze. On a successful save, nothing happens and the spell ends.

A creature poisoned by this spell makes another Wisdom saving throw at the end of each of its turns. If it successfully saves against this spell three times, the spell ends. If it fails its saves three times, it is turned into a gray ooze for the duration of the spell. The successes and failures don't need to be consecutive; keep track of both until the target collects three of a kind.

If remove curse, dispel magic, greater restoration or polymorph is cast on the target while it's poisoned, it takes 3d8 poison damage and this spell ends.

If you maintain your concentration on this spell for the entire possible duration, the creature is permanently transformed into a gray ooze until the effect is removed with either a remove curse or wish spell.

Charnel Fire

Level 5 Evocation

Casting Time: Action

Range: 30 ft

Components: V

Duration: Instantaneous

You speak a phrase and wreath a creature you can see within range in sinister flame and brimstone. The target must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw or take 4d8 fire damage and 4d8 necrotic damage. A creature that succeeds takes half as much damage. If this damage reduces a creature to 0 hit points, it is incinerated. An undead creature that fails the saving throw, and is neither resistant nor immune to necrotic damage, is immediately incinerated.

An incinerated creature and everything it's wearing and carrying, except magic items, is reduced to vapor. The creature can be restored to life only by means of a true resurrection or a wish spell.

You can choose to target a dead body with this spell. If you do, it is immediately incinerated.

Using a Higher-Level Spell Slot. The necrotic damage increases by 1d8 for each spell slot level above 5.

Consume Likeness

Level 5 Illusion

Casting Time: Action or ritual

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (fresh or preserved flesh of a dead humanoid, which the spell consumes)

Duration: Until dispelled

You eat a fresh or preserved piece of flesh belonging to a dead humanoid, consuming their likeness and committing it to your memory until dispelled. Once you've consumed a likeness, you can choose to use an action on your turn to adopt the likeness. While using the adopted likeness, you can use an action to change back into your old form.

When you adopt a likeness, you transform your appearance into that of the corpse before death, including your species, height, weight, facial features, sound of your voice, hair length, coloration, and distinguishing characteristics, if any.

If the creature had a fly, climb, burrow or swim speed, you gain that feature as well. You can't adopt the likeness of a creature of a different size than you, and your basic shape stays the same: if you're bipedal, you can't use this spell to become quadrupedal, for instance.

If you consume another likeness with this spell, the previous likeness is forgotten and replaced with the new one.

False Sending

Level 5 Illusion

Casting Time: Action

Range: Unlimited

Components: V, S, M (a short piece of copper wire)

Duration: 1 round

You flawlessly adopt the voice of a creature you are familiar with to send a short message of twenty-five words or less to another creature familiar to you. The recipient of the message hears it in its mind and recognizes the sender to be the creature whose voice you're adopting. The recipient can reply with a message of twenty-five words or less in their own voice immediately.

The spell enables creatures with Intelligence scores of at least 1 to understand the meaning of your message. You can send the message across any distance and even to other planes of existence, but if the target is on a different plane than you, there is a 5 percent chance that the message doesn't arrive.

Forbidden Speech

Level 5 Enchantment

Casting Time: Action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute.

You place a finger over an incapacitated creature's lips and speak an order. The target makes a Charisma saving throw. On a failure, the target is charmed by you for the duration. While charmed in this way, the creature is incapacitated. You can issue an order to the charmed target, commanding it to never again speak about a particular topic, person, item or location, such as: "You will never talk about the hidden vault!" or "Never speak of me again!" or "You will speak as though yesterday never happened."

You must repeat the order (no action required) on each turn for the duration of the spell. If the spell ends before 1 minute has passed, the target is no longer charmed and the order doesn't take hold. Otherwise, the target's ability to speak freely is altered permanently.

The target cannot communicate about the forbidden topic in any way. Speech becomes gibberish, writing is reduced to an indecipherable scrawl, gestures are impossible, and even communication through telepathy, including spells like detect thoughts, are distorted.

You cannot forbid a creature from speaking the verbal components of a spell, talking about their whole life story or anything the GM deems to be too broad for a reasonable definition of a single topic.

A remove curse or greater restoration spell cast on the target restores the creature's ability to speak freely.

Stop Heart

Level 5 Necromancy

Casting Time: Action

Range: Touch

Components: S

Duration: 1 round

Make a melee spell attack against a creature you can reach. On a hit, the target is stunned. At the end of its next turn, if the target is still stunned, it makes a Constitution saving throw. On a successful save, it is no longer stunned. On a failed save, its heart stops beating and it dies. A creature is unaffected by this spell if it has no heart or does not rely on its heart to survive.

Seething Eyebane

Level 6 Evocation

Casting Time: Action

Range: Touch

Components: S, M (a slice of lime)

Duration: Instantaneous

Make a melee spell attack against a creature you can reach. On a hit, the target takes 6d12 acid damage and must make a Constitution saving throw. On a failed save, the target's eyes melt away, giving it the blinded condition it until its eyes are restored through either the regenerate or wish spells, or other appropriate means.

Thousand Needles

Level 6 Transmutation

Casting Time: Action

Range: 60 ft

Components: V, S, M (a handful of needles, all of which have drawn blood)

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute

A thousand needles surround a creature you can see within range, piercing their flesh. Until the spell ends, whenever the target makes an attack roll, ability check or saving throw, it takes 1d4 piercing damage and subtracts the damage taken from the roll.

Wave of Pain

Level 6 Necromancy

Casting Time: Action

Range: Self

Components: V, S, M (both halves of a broken finger bone)

Duration: 1 round

A wave of overwhelming pain surges forth from your outstretched hands. Each living creature in a 60-foot cone originating from you must succeed on a Constitution saving throw or be stunned until the end of your next turn.

Death by Thorns

Level 7 Transmutation

Casting Time: Action

Range: 30 ft

Components: V, S

Duration: Instantaneous

Thorns sprout from the insides of up to three creatures you can see within range. Each target makes a Constitution saving throw. A creature that fails its save is poisoned until the condition is ended by lesser restoration or similar magic. A creature poisoned in this way takes 1d4 piercing damage at the end of each of its turns.

Wall of Eyes

Level 7 Conjuration

Casting Time: Action

Range: 120 feet

Components: V, S, M (the eye of a humanoid that still lives)

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 minutes

You create a wall of living, glistening eyes on a solid surface within range. You can form it into a hemispherical dome or a globe with a radius of up to 10 feet, or you can shape a flat surface made up of ten 10-foot-square panels. Each panel must be contiguous with another panel. In any form, the wall is 1 foot thick and lasts for the duration.

If the wall cuts through a creature's space when it appears, the creature is pushed to one side of the wall (you choose which side) and must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw or be paralyzed until the spell ends. Similarly, a creature that touches the wall must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw or be paralyzed until the spell ends.

A paralyzed creature makes another Wisdom saving throw at the end of each of its turns. If it successfully saves against this spell three times, it stops being paralyzed. If it fails its saves three times, it is consumed by the wall. Its body turns to goop and its eyes are added to the mass. The successes and failures needn't be consecutive; keep track of both until the target collects three of a kind.

The wall is an object that can be damaged and thus breached. It has AC 12 and 30 hit points per 10-foot section, and it has immunity to poison and psychic damage. Reducing a panel to 0 hit points destroys it.

If you maintain your Concentration on this spell for its full duration, the wall becomes permanent and can't be dispelled. Otherwise, the wall disappears when the spell ends. While you are on the same plane of existence as the wall, you can take an action to look through its eyes until the start of your next turn.

Whirlwind of Teeth

Level 7 Conjuration

Casting Time: Action

Range: 120 feet

Components: V, S, M (a handful of bloody teeth)

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute

You create a swirling whirlwind of screeching mouths with razor sharp teeth in a 10-foot-radius, 40-foot-high cylinder centered on a point you can see within range. Until the spell ends, you can take a magic action on later turns to move the cylinder up to 60 feet.

When the cylinder appears, each creature in it makes a Dexterity saving throw. On a failed save, a creature takes 6d8 slashing damage. On a successful save, a creature takes half as much damage. A creature also makes this save when the spell's area moves into its space and when it enters the spell's area or ends its turn there. A creature makes this save only once per turn.

Using a Higher-Level Spell Slot. The damage increases by 2d8 for each spell slot level above 7.

Gutwrench

Level 8 Necromancy

Casting Time: Action

Range: 30 feet

Components: V, S

Duration: Instantaneous

The innards of a humanoid, beast or monstrosity you can see within range begin to twist and turn inside it. The target must succeed on a Constitution saving throw or take 10d12 necrotic damage. A creature that succeeds its save takes half as much damage instead.

If this damage reduces a creature to 0 hit points, it is instantly killed as its intestines tear free from its body and fly toward you before being absorbed into your form. You gain temporary hit points equal to the necrotic damage taken by the creature.

Soul's Treasure Lost

Level 8 Transmutation

Casting Time: Action

Range: 30 feet

Components: V, S, M (a crushed ruby worth at least 500 gp, which the spell consumes)

Duration: Instantaneous

Choose a creature you can see within range. The spell determines which object currently on the subject's person has the highest value in gold pieces and disintegrates that object. This spell will not affect an artifact but destroys the next most valuable object on the target's person instead.

Spread of Savagery

Level 9 Enchantment

Casting Time: Action

Range: 120 feet

Components: V, S, M (three drops of brain fluid)

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 hour

You twist the minds of every other living creature within range. Each such creature must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw or become charmed by you for the spell's duration. While charmed in this way, a creature loses the ability to speak or understand any languages, and becomes hostile to all creatures it is not charmed by. It must spend each of its turns moving up to and attacking the nearest creature it is hostile to.
